Dear Mr. Warren: September 5, 1974

The bureaucratic wheels turn slowly and, for the moment, seem to have ground to a halt.

I am advised that plans for an interview have been postponed because of a lack of available air time this year. (I wish to emphasize postponement, not cancellation.) Even though I have now been given another assignment, I remain most enthusiastic about the project and, more importantly, so does Eric Sevareid.

I am quite disappointed about this personally, but Perry Wolff has asked me to tell you to expect to hear from him.

I hope you had a good and productive summer and that eventually our project will be realized.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Irv Drasnin
